

When Admiral Farragut missed his shave

WHEN ADMIRAL FARRAGUT lightened his ships to lead them boldly over a treacherous Mississippi River bar and fight the great battle of New Orleans, he worked without ceasing for ten nights and days, eating and sleeping when and where he could.

His shaving had to be postponed. Yet no amount of physical or mental work could dull the fighting edge of the man who said "Damn the torpedoes—go ahead!"—and the razor that he used was like him—time-tested in principle—keen-tempered, dependable—perfectly balanced. If Farragut's razor lacked any modern feature, it was simply the extra convenience and safety of the guarded and two-edged

DURHAM-DUPLEX A Real Razor—made Safe

In every time-proven shaving principle, the same as the razor Farragut—and your own father—used, with the addition of a guard to save your face and a two-edged blade to give you double shaving mileage. This blade, furthermore, is the longest, strongest, keenest, best-tempered blade on earth. Don't discard it when dulled. You can stop it—you can hone it. Don't throw good steel away. Go to your dealer today and you'll see why seven million men have changed from other razors to this real razor made safe.

THESE LEADING DEALERS SELL THEM:

DROWN'S DRUG STORE, 48 No. Main St.	LOUIS C. RIVERS, MONTPELIER
CUMMINGS & LEWIS, 54 No. Main St.	C. BLAKELEY, MONTPELIER
RUSSELL'S RED CROSS PHARMACY, 169 No. Main St.	H. A. SLADE, MONTPELIER
BARRE DRUG CO., 237 No. Main St.	L. J. MATHESON, MONTPELIER
GEO. W. LANDER, 92 No. Main St.	BERRY & JONES, MONTPELIER
F. H. ROGERS, 174 No. Main St.	PECK BROTHERS CO., MONTPELIER
OUT OF TOWN DEALERS	A. BERGANTI, MONTPELIER
BRISBIN & BRISBIN, WATERBURY	CAPITAL HARDWARE CO., MONTPELIER
A. A. PRATT, WATERBURY	G. A. BUCK, CHELSEA
L. H. WHITMAN, WATERBURY	R. S. JEFFORDS, WILLIAMSTOWN
	GEO. C. SANDOR, NORTHFIELD
	VICTOR A. GRANT, RANDOLPH
	C. G. CLIFFORD, BETHEL

If you are a Durham-Duplex dealer and wish to have your name added to the above list in subsequent advertisements, send your name and address to this newspaper and write the Durham-Duplex Razor Co. for a free window display.

ONE DOLLAR COMPLETE Greatest Shaving Mileage at Any Price

This set contains a Durham-Duplex Razor with an attractive white handle, safety guard, stropping attachment and package of 3 Durham-Duplex double-edged blades (6 shaving edges) all in a handsome leather kit. Get it from your dealer or from us direct.

Additional blades 50 cents for a package of 5

DURHAM-DUPLEX RAZOR CO.
190 BALDWIN AVENUE, JERSEY CITY, N. J.

CANADA: 50 Pearl Street, Toronto
ENGLAND: 27 Church St., Sheffield
FRANCE: A. Ponce & Co., 56 Rue de Paradis, Paris

SEVERAL BOMBS WERE SEIZED

And Cleveland Police Believe Big Radical Plot Is Unearthed

FIVE MEN AND ONE WOMAN ARRESTED

The Arrests Were Made in Four Simultaneous Raids

Cleveland, Oct. 29.—Discovery of a radical plot to spread terror throughout the nation by another series of bomb explosions next spring, was announced by the police here to-day following the arrest last night of five men and one woman suspected of having planned the destruction of the central police station.

Believing they are members of an anarchistic circle that has been working in more than 100 cities, the police questioned the group all night in an effort to learn details of their plans or the extent of their organization.

The arrests were made in four simultaneous raids, following information that an attempt was to be made to bomb the central police station here. One of the men is believed by the police to have been active in bombing Mayor Harry L. Davis' home June 2, last.

With the prisoners the police captured a large quantity of high explosives, one complete bomb, several incomplete bombs, a number of automatic pistols, a supply of ammunition and much anarchistic literature.

The police believe the arrests will lead to apprehension in other cities in connection with the country-wide bomb outrages which occurred last May and June.

Detectives were sent from here last night and to-day to co-operate with police in other cities.

LLOYD GEORGE REPEATS BULLITT TOLD FALSEHOODS

Bonar Law Explains Premier's Position in a Statement to the House of Commons.

London, Oct. 29.—In the House of Commons yesterday Bonar Law, the government leader, replied to a question by Josiah Wedgwood, the liberal leader, in regard to statements by William C. Bullitt, formerly member of the American peace mission, on his trip to Russia. Bonar Law said that Prime Minister Lloyd George had not personally read the report of the proceedings, but that it had been examined for him. The prime minister, he said, adhered to his statement that in effect the statement of Mr. Bullitt was a tissue of falsehoods.

WORLD MISSIONARIES GATHER.

For 50th Anniversary of Founding of Methodist W. F. M. S.

Brookline, Mass., Oct. 29.—Missionaries from various parts of the world and delegates to the general executive committee observed the 50th anniversary of the founding of the Women's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church here to-day. The program included a memorial for deceased missionaries and an address by Mrs. Louis S. Parker, who has spent 60 years in India and is the only survivor of the eight charter members of the society.

17 NATIONS REPRESENTED.

At International Congress of Working Women in Washington.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 29.—Election of permanent officers and the consideration of the legislative program outlined by the labor commission at the peace conference were the chief matters up for consideration at the international congress of working women to-day when it convened its second session.

Delegates to the congress from 16 foreign nations and the United States had registered to-day.

Cake Soap—the rubbing wears the life out of your clothes
“Washing Powder”—good enough for scrubbing but ruinous for clothes

WITH cake soap you rub till you wear the life out of your garments. If you add washing powders full of harsh chemicals, they “eat” the clothes, and ruin your hands.

But you have to get the clothes white.

And they go to pieces! Worn out by friction. Destroyed by strong alkalis.

You need not go on ruining your clothes like this.

Wash them with Rinso. Rinso is not a cake soap! Not a “washing powder”! But a wonderful new form of soap—in fine granules.

These pure granules dissolve instantly, and stir up into a soapy, bubbly tubful.

You soak the clothes overnight or for three hours in the morning.

Then you rinse them! And hang them out! Shining white without boiling or any real rubbing. The pure Rinso suds have done all the work.

Don't wash the old way another week. One package of Rinso will show you how to save hours of exhausting work, how to save yourself and save your clothes. Get Rinso from your grocer and follow the easy directions on the package. Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass. (Makers of Lux.)

Rinso

The new form of Soap for the family washing
Made by the makers of Lux

DEFENSE PUTS IN ITS EVIDENCE IN LONG TRIAL

(Continued from first page.)

as though something had been pulled over the spot, but no tracks. The mark between the head of the body and the wire fence was probably five or six feet; a little way from the fence it was distinct. The mark was probably within a slight distance from the fence to the grass, near the fence. A part of the wire fence was down not far from the woodworking shop but on the Pearl street side. He told about the corner determined by a post, and a part of the fence being down towards Main street.

On cross examination he did not recall any gateway at the easterly point from the body. The soil was dark, not grassed over. He did not see a footprint between the fence and the body.

Charles M. Stowell Heard Dogs Barking.

Charles M. Stowell of Stove testified he is a lumberman. He was stopping at the Buzzell hotel on May 1. He had room nine, over the entrance.

He went there April 15 and remained until May 7. He recalled the murder of Mrs. Broadwell. He went to his room at 11:10. He played solitaire a while and got into bed about 12 o'clock. He was disturbed by dogs barking. The street approaching toward the hotel from Summer street. The noise stopped in front of the hotel. The dogs barked quite a little while but he could not say how long. He did not think he had been asleep very long.

On cross examination Mr. Archibald tried to make the witness change his testimony but accomplished little.

David A. Daprey Also Disturbed By Dogs.

David A. Daprey of Springfield, Mass., had been at the Buzzell hotel at various times for 18 years. He had a room in the tenement house about three doors from Summer street. His room faced the back of the house. He could see a garage. He went to his room between 9 and 10 o'clock. He was disturbed and awakened about 1 o'clock and stuck his head out of the window and told the dogs to “shut up” (laughter by audience). There were two dogs, a big white one and one a little brown dog. The noise continued for about an hour. He saw a man on Summer street, who also told the dogs to “shut up.” He described the man as wearing a dark suit of clothes.

On cross examination he said the barking continued about a couple of hours.

A. J. Bartlett Saw Blood in Fraser's Room.

Albert J. Bartlett of Barre, who lived in the Buzzell hotel, recalled Mrs. Broadwell's body being found in the Wheelock garden. On Sunday morning his attention was called to it by Mrs. Brown, the caretaker of the Fraser room. He tried to unlock the room for Mrs. Brown. John Robbins opened the door and he went into the room. He saw a board walk upon which was matter that looked like blood, between the Fraser room and bathroom. He also saw blood on the ground. He saw a wooden pipe, which Mr. Robbins picked up and then threw down. He saw someone come out of the bathroom Sunday morning with a towel upon which there was blood and also he saw blood stains under the bed and blood on the bed clothing in Fraser's room. There was blood in front of the middle of the bed. It was covered with a rug. He was not sure whether there were any buttons near the bed. It seemed as though there were. He saw Fraser there after 11 o'clock. On cross examination he said that Officers Gamble and Morris were there. He did not see Mr. Davis there. He did not see any officer present when the door was opened. From what he saw there it looked as though there had been a good “deal of bleeding.” He remembered seeing the blood scooped up by some officer.

Mrs. Elizabeth Brown Also Saw Blood.

Mrs. Elizabeth Brown of Barre recalled the Broadwell murder. She was employed as a chamber maid in the little brick block at the Buzzell property. She also testified relative to the Fraser room, corroborating the previous testimony. There was no cross examination.

Mrs. Rose Gibbons Had Heard Loud Talking in Broadwell House.

Mrs. Rose Gibbons of 4 West street, Barre, testified when she sleeping room faced the Broadwell house. She knew Mr. and Mrs. Broadwell. She was a telephone operator and sometimes worked until 10 o'clock. She knew Mrs. Broadwell's voice, a very high, rasping voice, when she heard it. She had talked with Broadwell. The windows faced the Broadwell house and last May she had a window open at night. She had heard Mrs. Broadwell giving loud talk. She could hear someone talking with her and had heard Mrs. Broadwell use the expression of “a liar,” had heard it very often prior to May 3. These occasions were frequent. She had heard loud talk in the Broadwell yard. It was Mrs. Broadwell.

There are trees along the street. She had seen someone behind the trees the Saturday night before the murder. On that night a man stepped out, looked at her and then he stepped back into the shadow. She ran into the house. He was a large man. She could not identify the man. It was about 9:15 o'clock that night. About the last of March she saw a similar thing occur.

The attorney general asked the court's ruling as to the time. The defense received an answer to the question. About the last of March it took place. She followed the man but could not see who it was. This was near the Broadwell house.

Mr. Carver asked the witness if in the week preceding the night of Mrs. Broadwell's death, Mrs. Broadwell made some statement to her relative to being followed home by a Swede.

The state objected and the question was excluded. An offer was made at the bench, the offer was overruled and an exception was taken. On cross examination the witness testified Broadwell was a quiet, mild-mannered man.

On cross examination she said she had never seen the men keep “under cover” there in any way and that they did not try to cover their actions. She did not know the respondent. She never saw the respondent. After Mr. Archibald pressed the question she said she had never seen his face.

Saw Auto Going Fast.

E. J. Blanchard of Montpelier testified he was in Barre to attend the Hutchins wedding May 3 but did not attend the wedding in fact. He saw Miss Thurler at the Central depot. He was attracted to a noise on Main street of an automobile going very fast. There were three in the car. Two of them were men, the other a woman. After a few minutes his party left the depot in Soper's car. He saw a small car near Jones Brothers' with two men and a woman in it. He could not give details of the car or persons in it. No cross examination.

Miss Thurler testified similarly in the morning, showing a noisy car went to Jones Brothers'.

On the subject of shorthand, so popular with Scotch and English folk.

“But, good as was the old-fashioned kind,” remarked our hostess, “it was so extremely rich that the heavy taste lingered long after eating.”

“Well,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

Mrs. Anna Patterson Saw Two Men Point Toward Broadwell House.

Mrs. Anna Patterson of 4 West street, Barre, testified she recalled the Broadwell murder. She told about the trees on West street. She saw a man around the trees about two weeks before the murder. On a Sunday night at dusk about 5 or 6 o'clock, she saw two men, one tall with light mustache, the other short. The tall man wore a dark gray suit and light hat, the other man had a very long overcoat and blue cap. They pointed toward the Broadwell house and then went away. She did not know the men but she thought the tall man was a Swede. A similar occurrence took place later.

In cross examination she said she had never seen the men keep “under cover” there in any way and that they did not try to cover their actions. She did not know the respondent. She never saw the respondent. After Mr. Archibald pressed the question she said she had never seen his face.

Saw Auto Going Fast.

E. J. Blanchard of Montpelier testified he was in Barre to attend the Hutchins wedding May 3 but did not attend the wedding in fact. He saw Miss Thurler at the Central depot. He was attracted to a noise on Main street of an automobile going very fast. There were three in the car. Two of them were men, the other a woman. After a few minutes his party left the depot in Soper's car. He saw a small car near Jones Brothers' with two men and a woman in it. He could not give details of the car or persons in it. No cross examination.

Miss Thurler testified similarly in the morning, showing a noisy car went to Jones Brothers'.

On the subject of shorthand, so popular with Scotch and English folk.

“But, good as was the old-fashioned kind,” remarked our hostess, “it was so extremely rich that the heavy taste lingered long after eating.”

“Well,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

“Yes,” said Retax, “there's nothing better than a good Scotch shortbread.”

AMUSEMENT NOTES

“Experience” Called the Most Wonderful Play in America.

The most wonderful play in America, “Experience,” by George V. Hobart, will be presented by F. Ray Comstock and Morris Gest at the opera house on Saturday, Nov. 1.

This will be the sixth season of “Experience” and the play bids fair to be more successful this year than ever before, because it seems that no matter where “Experience” goes, this remarkable modern morality play always attracts capacity audiences. The clergy-men of every big city from Maine to California have pronounced “Experience” one of the most wonderful lessons of right living ever presented to the eyes of youth. It is the story of the trials and temptations that beset youth on every hand and it is presented by a remarkable cast and surroundings of great scenic beauty. There are 10 scenes in the production and the cast is an exceptionally strong one—very.

WELLS RIVER

Mr. and Mrs. Learned Smith were in Lyndonville last Friday, where Mr. Smith attended a meeting for the school superintendents on this side of the state.

George Randall attended the Masonic district meeting held at St. Johnsbury last Friday afternoon. He returned with John Stevens, who had also been present.

Elwin Cameron of Newport was a week-end visitor at the home of his father, Sidney Cameron.

Mr. Seeley of New York has been spending several days at Hale's tavern.

W. D. Stinson was called to Laconia Sunday afternoon on business. He returned on the air line the same night.

Plate glass will break. If you still doubt, ask James Kearney of Woodsville.

The district meeting of the W. R. C. was held at St. Johnsbury last week Wednesday for that district. Several from here attended.

A social and card party was given at the home of Mrs. Learned Smith on Tuesday afternoon in the interest of the Study club.

Miss Doris Hinman entertained 18 young ladies in honor of her 16th birthday at her home last Saturday.

Dr. Munsell returned Monday from St. Albans, where he had attended the reunion of the 1st Vermont cavalry.

Donation day for Cottage hospital netted them the following items: $100, 10 bushel beets, about 30 squash and pumpkins. According to the report the town of Newbury did not take an exceptionally large